

The Neurodevelopmental Approach to Teaching

Plymouth State University's College of Graduate Studies has partnered with the Center for School Success (CSS) to create graduate programs focusing in the Neurodevelopmental Approach to Teaching – the only programs of their kind in the country. Students may complete a graduate certificate; a Master of Education in K-12 Education, Self-designed; or the Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies (CAGS) in Educational Leadership.

For more information about Neurodevelopmental Approach to Teaching options, contact Plymouth State University's College of Graduate Studies at (800) FOR-GRAD, forgrad@plymouth.edu or visit plymouth.edu/graduate. For information on course registration, cost, course location, delivery options for schools/districts and pre-requisites, contact CSS: phone (603) 298-6700; Email: leslie.williamson@valley.net or visit: www.centerforschoolsuccess.org

2010-2011 Course Schedule

PSU Course Note: some courses must be taken sequentially	Term Offered	Location
ND5000 Foundations in Neurodevelopmental Theory 2 graduate credits	Summer 2010 6/24-6/25 and 6/28-6/29 Understanding the Minds of Struggling Learners-substitute course-3 credits  Fall 2010 9/25-9/26  Winter 2011 12/4-12/5	CSS, West Lebanon, NH  Concord, NH
ND 5010 Teaching with Talent, Knowledge and Skill: Translating Neurodevelopmental Strengths into Effective Classroom Practice 2 graduate credits	Summer 2010 7/13-7/14  Winter 2011 2/5-2/6	CSS, West Lebanon, NH  Concord, NH
ND 5020 Applying a Neurodevelopmental Approach to Instructional Practice (Curriculum and Assessment) 3 graduate credits	Fall 2010 10/9-10/10,online component, 11/6-11/7  Spring 2011 4/1-4/2, online component 4/30-5/1	Concord, NH
ND5050 Understanding and Remembering: The Role of Attention and Memory in Learning 2 graduate credits	Summer 2010 (8/3-8/5)  Spring 2011 (3/5 -3/6)	CSS, West Lebanon, NH  Concord, NH
ND 5030 Using Collaboration to Enhance Instructional Practices 2 graduate credits	Summer 2010 (7/27-7/29)	CSS, West Lebanon, NH
ND 5040 Using Authentic Data to Engage Students' Minds 2 graduate credits	Fall 2010 11/19-11/21	CSS, West Lebanon, NH

For specific course dates and cost please refer to the Plymouth State University Website (<http://www.plymouth.edu/graduate/partnerships/css.html>) or the CSS Calendar. Generally, course per credit cost thru 9/1/10: $449 per credit in-state; $491 per credit out-of-state, plus $25 registration fee